A Republican State Convention

WILL BE HELD IN

GRANITE HALL, AUGUSTA,

Wednesday, June 23, 1880

At 11 o'clock A. M.,

for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor to be supported at the September election, and two candidates for Electors of President and Vice President of the United States and to transact any other business that may properly come before the Convention

The basis of representation will be as follows Each city town and plantation will be entitled to one delegate and for every seventy five votes cast for the Republican candidate for Governor in 1879 an additional delegate and a fraction of forty votes in excess of seventy five will be recorded a delegate

The State Committee will be in session in the ante room of the Hall at 9 o'clock on the morning of the Convention to receive the credentials of delegates

For the first time in the history of Maine the attempt was made in 1878 to deprive the people of the right to choose their own officers and to constitutionally continue in power upon whom the people had rejected. The authors abettors and accomplices in this crime against free government are now seeking to come before the people under some new party name—avoiding themselves of an alias the common resort of those who seek to escape the responsibility and punishment of their crimes

Against these men under whatever name they may appear, all those citizens who condemn the nefarious plot to destroy the rights of suffrage, are invited to unite without regard to past party affiliations, to preserve honest Government for the honest people of Maine.

By order of the Republican State Committee

C A BOUTELLE, FRED N DOW, GEORGE C. WING, } Sub-Committee

J O SMITH, Secretary

AN INTERESTING CONFERENCE

A number of Democrats, among whom were Edmund Wilson of Thomaston and N S Littlefield of Bridgton, and various local politicians of Portland, held consultations in Portland on Sunday and Monday at which the sentiment seemed to be that the Democrats should make no nomination for Governor this year, leaving the rank and file of the party free to vote for the Greenback nominee. It was felt that the State and Presidential elections in Maine must be kept distinctly in mind as two separate affairs Last year 5 000 Democratic voters were lost to the Democratic party through the fusion Greenbacker This year the number will be trebled if as a party the Democrats are asked to carry Garcelon and Counts As one gentleman put it, "if Capt Chase wants vindication let him go to the grand jury He won't get it from the Democratic party Speaking of the counting-out fraud, a prominent Democrat said at this conference, 'Why, nobody whoever saw those tabulations could for a moment doubt that they had been altered Now said he there is Captain Chase working as hard as he can to get elected delegate at large to the Cincinnati Convention, and I must say it looks as if he would succeed Consider for a moment how ridiculous a spectacle would be presented in that case The Cincinnati convention will proobably adopt a resolution condemning the steal of 1878 and there will be Captain Chase a delegate from Maine who tried to steal this State and 5 000 voting ohilly for that resolution

DEEPER IN THE MUD

WILL COUNCILLOR FOSTER HANDIN HIS FINAL DEFENCE?

When the Hebron return was opened our attention was called to the middle initial of the name of Henry G Walker (the 10th district) it being difficult to decide whether it was intended for a C or a G As all the other returns were G we had no doubt this was so intended and so counted it Some one has made the mark in a different colored ink since it left our hands—Portland Advertiser and Courier of Council

The fact is that the middle initial of Walker was as plain a C as could be made when the return was opened and when it was seen December 8th by Hon F C Farrington in the presence of Mr Foster of the Council This may be seen now by examining the return as the addition shows It was canvassed for Henry G Walker and when the return was placed in the hands of the Republicans late in January the C had been made a G by striking a loop below the line, which as it dried appeared in another color The following sworn testimony of Hon E C Farrington before the investigating committee will expose the claims of the late Governor and Council

Q—I call your attention to the return for county officers from the town of Hebron and ask you if you have seen it before

A—I should say it was the same return I saw December 8th

Q—When you examined that return how did you find this name—Henry G Walker—written?

A—Henry C Walker

Q—How do you find that written now

A—Henry G Walker, it would be called, I should think

Q—Has or has not the C been changed to G by adding a line to it

A—It has

Q—Whether or not you find the original C still upon the paper so it can be clearly seen and identified without the aid of a glass

A—It looks so to me

Q—How was it changed

A—I should suppose it was changed by making an additional pen mark down.

Q—Does it or not appear upon its face clearly?

A—Yes, sir

Q—The top of the penmark commencing with the bottom of the C and extending down through the loop, making a G of it?

A—Yes, sir I called the attention of the Council to the fact at the time

Q—Who called the attention of the Council at the time to the fact that the return as it appeared before them, was for Henry C Walker?

A—I called the attention of Councillor Foster to it, and he examined it with me

Q—Whether or not it appears on the face of this paper that it was written with different ink from what the original Henry C Walker was written with?

A—Yes I should say so

Should there come a lull in the congratulations Councillor Foster has received since he returned, perhaps he will explain this Hebron case

FOR CHICAGO

The Belfast delegation from New Hampshire and other gentlemen number ing twenty will join the Blaine Club Excursion at Boston for Chicago All in this section who intend joining the party should send in their names at once and secure berths and hotel accommodations.

Any discharged soldier of the United States who has not made application for pension on account of wounds or disability received while in the service, must do so before July 1, 1880. After that time pensions will date only from the time of application The same is true regarding applications for additional bounty yet claimed by many soldiers.

A WEAK DEFENCE

[From the Boston Journal]

Ex Governor Garcelon, of Maine, and [five of] the seven men who constituted his Council have at last come before the public in a defence. It is a long and wearisome document, made up of explanations of irrelevant matters, of references to Republican precedents, of charges against and abuses of leading Republicans, and closes with a solemn denial on their part of any wrong-doing Outside of that portion of the Fusion party in Maine which defends the Garcelon conspiracy, the statement can have no effect It cannot change the opinion of a candid man. The distinguishement of the cities, the cases of Farmington Skowhegan, Fairfield, Lisbon, etc, when there is positive evidence of a purpose to unlawfully deprive the majority of representation, is not explained So long as these cases remain without explanation it is idle for Dr Garcelon and his several accomplices to protest their innocence or try to divert the public with columns of irrelevant matters Leaving all else and falling back upon these cases, the men are guilty of all that has been charged against them They violated their oaths of office, they trampled under foot the constitution and the laws of the State, they deprived minorities of representation

The cases of which we have referred cannot be explained. The crime is as conclusively proved against them as would be a charge of murder where the crime was committed in the presence of a hundred witnesses The very fact that they deny any wrong doing in these cases leads the public to believe that they are guilty of all the charges laid to their doors—the motivation, alteration and substitution of returns Silence would have been much better, but men under charges, and even under conviction, always insist upon reopening their cases Doubtless the Fusion managers have urged the late Governor and Council to come out in this defence in the hope that something may be found or said which will convince many disgusted voters that the latest officials are not guilty of the dark crimes charged against them They will find that this weak defence, with its evasions its complaints and its denunciations will do them no good The Fusion leaders by sustaining Garcelon & Co became accomplices in their crimes If they had had the sagacity last December to have denounced the conspiracy they might have made the late Executive and his advisers responsible for their conspiracy against popular government and thus have saved themselves and their party from the odium which attaches to those who commit great crimes Instead of doing this they approved and encouraged the conspirators and by so doing they have placed their names in the list of the accused

Ex Gov Garcelon and his official accomplices in the conspiracy to be held an opportunity to meet the charges made against them The Legislative Committee served notice upon them to appear and explain They refused to do so Having refused to appear before the proper tribunal the public will not pay much attention to declarations made after sentence has been pronounced against them both by the Legislature and the people of Maine at the March elections

THE NEW BISHOPS

The four new Methodist bishops all wear white neckties high silk hats and notorious taches Bishop Walden is tall, slim, has brown hair, and whiskers of the same color trimmed to a point under the chin His eyes are brown with a bluish tendency there is nothing remarkable in their expression and his nose is rather prominent In walking he buttons up his dress coat and takes long steps Bishop Foss is stall thin dignified and a near view shows him to be really good looking His forehead is square and high his eyes very dark and his hair iron gray, as are his whiskers which extend under his chin His nose is Roman He has the air of an educator the manners of a gentleman and is endowed with considerable eloquence Bishop Hurst has a strong face, large blue eyes a Grecian nose overarching eyebrows and a high, rounding forehead His hair is rather thin He used to be slim and generally looks well he had just run his hands through it His only facial adornment is a small goatee He stoops a little in the shoulders and holds his head forward giving the chin a slight upward inclination His wife is a Prince Albert cos closely buttoned and looks like a man of distinction Bishop Haven is not more than five feet five or six inches in height and is so slim that it is doubtful if he will, by more than 130 pounds He has a sharp protruding nose, a small mouth and rather unmarked features generally He is getting bald and his hair is almost white, which with his benevolent expression makes him look venerable.

GAME OF BRAG

Your letter in the Evening Journal is by all odds the best thing of the day It will make our rallying cry in Chicago in the first fight which we shall have there and break down the unit rule, as the Grant men interpret it, preparatory to nominating Blaine What you have so perfectly said will help amazingly just now in Pennsylvania and New York, and indeed, all over the country Michigan, I am glad to say, is for Blaine The people want him, the men who have got to do the voting being nine-tenths for him

Horace Maynard, who has been appointed Postmaster General in place of Mr Key, is a native of Westboro, Mass, and a graduate of Amherst College, but early removed to Tennessee. He has been eight times elected to Congress, the first time as an "American," and afterwards as a Whig or Republican. Since leaving Congress, in 1875, he has served as Minister to Turkey, a position which he now occupies. He will doubtless make a valuable member of the Cabinet.

POLITICAL

Congressman Field, of Massachusetts, will not consent to a re-election

Greenbackism is played out in Iowa, not the slightest interest being taken in the State Convention

It is now reported that the Louisiana Delegation to Chicago will not be instructed, and that only part of it will be for Grant

The Young Men's Democratic Club have refused to support Mr. Tilden's candidacy, and desire an uncommitted delegation to Cincinnati

The present Congress is a wart on the body politic It has neither use or beauty, and is simply a hideous excrescence which would make our Government elsewhere worse removed.—Springfield (Ohio) Republic (Rep)

Senator Robertson who as a delegate from New York refuses to be bound by the unit rule at Chicago has received a large number of letters from influential Republicans, approving of the stand he has taken

On Monday, Mr Blaine received a letter from a prominent Republican of Eastern Pennsylvania in which he was informed that another delegate to Chicago who was elected by the way, as an alternate but who takes the place of a delegate who has been removed by death, has pledged himself to vote for the "Plumed Knight" first last and all the time Cameron or no Cameron

It has been suggested that householders and the public generally ought to be supplied with census return forms a sample time before the census takers start upon their rounds, so that they may be prepared to furnish full, and accurately the information desired. This is an excellent idea. It carried out much time and trouble will be saved and more satisfactory returns obtained. The questions this time take an unusually wide range and they cannot all be answered properly unless those of whom they are asked shall be given due notice beforehand

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Journal telegraphed that paper Tuesday

William D Chandler has arrived there after his canvass of the New York delegation to Chicago in Blaine's interest Mr Chandler said to-day that he did not see how it is possible to defeat Blaine at Chicago He considers that Grant is already defeated and that the talk about electing him on the first ballot is mere bluff There will Mr Chandler says certainly be, enough bolts in both the New York and Pennsylvania delegations in favor of Blaine and any reports to the contrary which may have been sent out ought to outright to be for the purpose of influencing the State Convention there tomorrow are not founded on facts Mr Chandler believes that Blaine will go into the convention with 300 votes at the minimum on the first ballot a vote which General Grant cannot reach and that Blaine's nomination upon the second ballot is as well assured as human events can be

PORTLAND May 19 Ship Pleiades, from Liverpool reports that on the tenth inst lost overboard seaman Henry W Ellis of Philadelphia

THE GREAT BOAT RACE.

Harlan the Victor.

Courtney Confesses "It Isn't in Him."

One Hundred Thousand Persons Witness the Race.

A Match Arranged Between Harlan and Riley.

WASHINGTON D C, May 19 Wharves and every available place are crowded with spectators to view the race Everything is covered with bunting and flags and lined with people The Aqueduct bridge has been crowded since 9 o'clock and the entire length Every avenue of approach to the river is lined with vehicles and pedestrians hurrying to the course Small craft of every description are crowding the waters from various points along the river Every boat are busily engaged, ferrying passengers across to Anotostan Island directly opposite Georgetown, where large stands are erected for the accommodation of spectators A gun was fired, notifying the men to be at their posts at 3 30 o'clock when arrived at the turn to take part in the race provided other contestants failed to appear At 4 03 a gun was fired for the men to get ready At 4 03 Harlan and Courtney came to take their positions Just as the word was given 10,000 people were expected to witness the race Harlan won the toss and took the Virginia side At 4 05 the word "Go" was given, the members of Courtney took the lead, Harlan went to the front before reaching the quarter mile flag and at half a mile Harlan turned the stake boat a long ways ahead of Courtney On the mile Harlan was leading, but not much At the half mile flag from the south Harlan still led At the half mile flag from the south Courtney left the water and pulled to his boat house Harlan moved over the finish in about 37 minutes

Accounts for the first half minute varies, Riley with rate of 37 strokes a minute, while Harlan was timed at 41 before Courtney had pulled ten strokes However Harlan outhauled him and each succeeding stroke sent the boat farther before at one eighth of a mile, Courtney could just be seen between the men At this point Courtney turned to look over his shoulder, and evidently said he was beaten, as he suddenly dropped his stroke to 30 and said to those on the stakes boat who shouted to him "It is no use" Harlan also turned and pulling steadily at speed he kept his boat pleased All interest in the race was gone when Harlan reached the quarter flag fully ten lengths in advance At the first mile he pulled 31 to the mile leading by fully fifteen boat lengths Courtney laboring unsteadily at each stroke frequently casting despairing glances over his shoulder Soon after passing the mile flag Courtney stopped rowing and removed his handkerchief, dipped it in water and replaced it on his head repeating the operation half a dozen times during the next mile His steering which at the start was faultless, became wild and more erratic, and three of the buoys from the half mile to the two mile flags were either brushed by his oars or run over directly by his boat His official time is 36 minutes and 19 S 10 seconds.

Courtney stopped his boat at two and one-fifth miles from the start, pulling leisurely back over the course and disembarked at quarters Harlan on the last eighth of a mile quickened to a 40 stroke and gave an exhibition of speed to the finish which he was awarded the prize by a large majority

WASHINGTON, May 19 Riley rowed nearly the entire course a short distance ahead of Hanlan When the race was finished Hanlan received an ovation from friends and made a speech defeating Riley as no gentleman and or to row him for ten dollars or ten thousand dollars any time The citizens subscribed a purse and a match was arranged to take place between Hanlan and Riley for May 26th, over to day's course, the winner to take two thirds the loser main

THE ILLINOIS CONVENTION.

THIRD TERM TACTICS

The Convention Packed.

THE COOK COUNTY DELEGATES EXCLUDED.

Logan for Rule or Ruin.

ADJOURNMENT TILL TO-DAY.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill, May 19 The Grant delegates held a large and enthusiastic caucus last night Robert T Lincoln presided and Stephen A. Douglass, Jr, acted as Secretary On the call of counties 85 counties' delegates responded A committee of five was appointed to prepare a programme for an adjourned meeting this morning A despatch was read from E B Washburne urging his friends to support Grant Speeches were made by prominent leaders Senator Logan stated that Grant now had 339 votes and Illinois 42 votes would nominate him on the first ballot Grant, he said, ought to have the 42 votes of Illinois solid. If Blaine should have a majority of the convention he would move to give him every vote The meeting then adjourned

Gen Rusk, in addressing the convention, after hoping that the contesting delegations would abide by the decision of the decision of the convention and said that Illinois would stand by the nomination of the Chicago convention. If that true Republican wise statesman and great financier, John Sherman, is nominated, we will give him an earnest and hearty support If that great political leader and immitable parliamentarian and debater, James G Blaine is the nominee, Illinois Republicans will make his cause their own If that man of extreme modesty, of absolute candor of extraordinary judgment, of inflexible integrity, of indomitable will, Ulysses S Grant, is nominated, remembering his great deeds and recognizing the constant growth of our debt of gratitude for his matchless genius in saving this country from its enemies, the Republicans of Illinois will take the great man in their loving arms and bear him forward in triumph

The Committee on Credentials was appointed by Congressional districts A motion for a recess resulted in 518 against 349 which is considered a majority of Grant's friends of 101

A resolution binding contesting delegates to abide by the decision of the convention, was carried by the same vote A recess was then taken

Before the opening of the convention the Cook county Blaine Washburne delegation held a caucus and, resolved to proceed in a body to the door of the convention and demand admission They appointed a committee to confer with the temporary chairman as to the authority for their admission

The Journal's special claims that while the State Central Committee refused to admit the regular Cook county delegation to participate in the organization of the convention it allowed the galleries to be crowded long before noon, so that the regular delegates could not even find room there, and denounces its action as without justification or precedent

Putting on the Screws.

Before reassembling the Palmer House (Grant) delegation presented their credentials to the Committee on Credentials when the Farwell Hall (anti Grant) delegation presented theirs objection was made because they had not complied with the resolution adopted in the convention requiring them to abide the decision of the convention After a lengthy debate, during which much feeling was developed the delegations were required to make the pledge. The Farwell Hall delegates asked until 8 o'clock to consult, which was granted It is stated that the Washburne Blaine men in Cook county have decided not to accept the pledge

LATER—Since the previous report the Farwell Hall delegation adopted a resolution to be presented to the committee protesting against the rights of the convention to impose any such test as a pledge required without bringing a statement of their case but declaring their fealty to the Republican party and Republican principles, and expressing a determination to support the nominees of the Chicago Convention, relying upon being fairly treated by the State Convention

Adjournment Until To-day.

When the Convent on reassembled the Committee on Credentials reported a list of delegates from all the counties except Cook and Greene The report was adopted and the convention adjourned till 9 o'clock to-morrow morning

The Committee on Credentials settled the Greene county contest by admitting both Grant and Blaine delegates giving each half a vote The committee adjourned to-morrow morning when Cook county will be resumed

MINNESOTA CONVENTION.

The Windom Nonsense.

All the Delegates for Blaine But Three.

ST PAUL, Minn. May 19 The Republican State Convention met at noon and appointed the usual committees. It then took a recess The Convention reassembled at 2.30 The temporary officers were made permanents. Delegates at large, Presidential electors and District delegates were chosen.

Resolutions were adopted instructing the delegates to secure if possible the nomination of Wm Windom for President and endorse the administration of Hayes

A resolution declaring Blaine the second choice of the convention was tabled by a decisive vote

An anti third term resolution was sent to the committee on resolutions and not reported Adjourned

Interviews with delegates indicate that Blaine is the second choice of all but three One of these is Grant, one Sherman and one for Edmunds

Barron Division S. of T No 14, have leased Concert Hall and fitted it up in a manner that gives it a very neat and attractive appearance They will hereafter hold their regular Thursday evening meetings in this hall.

We have received an invitation to be present at the formal opening of the fish-way at Augusta next Tuesday morning We understand that this is one of the finest structures of the kind ever put up in this part of the country

Hon Joshua Gray, of Gardiner has just returned from a lumbering expedition at the Forks of the Kennebec river He says there is still snow on the hills there, and some even in the roads Says the drive on Moose river is getting along well, but that on Dead River is hard

Diphtheria broke out again in Sherman two weeks ago in a malignant form. There have been some fifteen cases, three of which have proved fatal, and others are critical. The village school was closed by the municipal officers on account of it, after keeping one week.

MISSIONARY CIRCLE The circle of the Hammond street church, will meet this afternoon in the vestry, to complete some work for a box of clothing, and in the evening, at the lecture room, there will be a parish picnic The members of the congregation are all invited Rev. Charles L Mills, the acting pastor will be present, and will be pleased to see them Supper at seven o'clock.

SOCIABLE There was a very pleasant sociable at Unity Hall last evening The company embraced both old and young and the hours were passed in really a social manner. Miss Dressel favored the assembly with a piano solo artistically rendered, after which bountiful refreshments were served The pastor, Rev I Mr Stewart, made some interesting remarks on the need of locability in the church, which were well received

A DIFFERENCE OF OPINION It is reported that a Lewiston man recently got in an affray with an assault on a woman, growing out of a theological discussion The question, before the meeting was, was Daniel in the lions eat Daniel? One side of the house maintained that the reason was because Daniel was too good, and the other reasoned that the lions were not hungry The contestants came to blows and the police court was the final arbiter

CANVAS BOATS Some light and graceful canvas boats for lake fishing have been lately built by E H Gerrish, the manufacturer of fishing rods, on Broad street These boats are exactly like an Indian canoe, except that they are covered with a light duck, which is painted and made impervious to water They ride are light and made of cedar, and the boats weigh from fifty to eighty pounds each Last week Mr Gerrish sent one of these novel crafts to Sebec Lake.

GRAND ARMY RELIEF CORPS A delegation of four ladies and one gentleman arrived in this city last evening from Bosworth Post, Portland to install the officers of the Ladies' Relief Corps connected with B H Beale Post The ladies are requested to meet at Grand Army Hall this afternoon at three o'clock when the officers will be elected In the evening at eight o'clock the installation ceremonies will occur, and the members of the Post and their lady friends are invited to be present

A CALLER THAT C ME AFTER HOURS The house of W C Sprat, of Kenduskeag, was entered Friday evening by a tramp through a window and a knife and about two dollars in money were taken from the pants of Mr Spratt which were in his bed room. The tramp seemed to be more in search of food than anything else, as articles of value within his reach were not disturbed He ate and carried off quite a lot of food, including about two dozen eggs and made his escape without awakening any one in the house.

OBITUARY Mrs Julia A Manning, widow of Edward Manning of Waldoboro', Me, died in Boston Monday evening after a lingering illness She was a native of Warren, Me, and was about seventy six years of age She was a most estimable lady and had gathered quite a large circle of friends around her during a residence of about ten years in Chelsea, and was held in high esteem in Warren and Waldoboro' Her remains will be taken to Waldoboro to day, and interred in the family lot

THE CROSBY FOGG BELL The Hinckley & Egery Iron company are preparing to test one of the celebrated Close Fogg Bells that is to be set up at Harding's ledge off Boston These bells will be remembered are worked by the action of the water, a simple arrangement being made to slide back and forth on the shaft, by the action of the waves, that causes the bell to strike every few seconds. The shaft has been erected in front of the foundry, and it is proposed to make a large tank and fill it with water, in order to give the bell a thorough trial before its shipment.

PRIZE EXHIBITION The students of Lee Normal Academy gave a prize exhibition at the town Hall in Lee on Friday evening, May 7th. A large audience was present, and the students performed their parts in a very creditable manner. The first prize in declamation was awarded to Fred C Barnes of Lee, the second, to J. W. White of Lincoln, the third to Lloyd R. Scribner of Lee The first prize in reading was awarded to Miss Lucy E Muzzy of Carroll, the second to Miss Annie K. Watson of Ellsworth, the third to Miss Carrie Muzzy of Carroll.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING. The event of the season at the State Capitol, was the marriage, last evening, of Miss Lizzie G. Vickery, the only daughter of Hon. P. O Vickery, Mayor of the city, to Dr. John F. Hill, a talented young physician. A brilliant wedding reception was given at the elegant mansion of His Honor, to which some five hundred invitations had been issued. Several Bangoreans were present. Miss Vickery has a wide circle of friends who hold her in the highest esteem; consequently the wedding gifts were numerous and costly. The toilette of the bride was very elegant and becoming, as indeed were those of Mrs. Vickery and many of the guests

Six hundred new Springfield muskets, from the United States arsenal, have arrived at Augusta for the Maine militia. They are breech loaders, forty-five calibre, similar to those in use in the regular army The old muskets of the Maine militia were of fifty calibre, but these are lighter and of a neater pattern

A BAD CHARACTER At about twelve o'clock last night Officers Rice and McCoy arrested Jack Fury at his home on French street Fury has been away for some time and only arrived home recently, but he is never about the city long before he gets into some trouble. On this occasion he went up to the house and amused himself by breaking out the glass and abusing his father. The officers hearing of his actions went up after him, and as he was fully as noisy as ever he made the night hideous with his foul language The Hammond street boarding house is a good place for such characters

RAISE POTATOES The Lewiston Journal contains the following good advice. The price of potatoes the past year having been comparatively low compared with that of the preceding year, many will be inclined to plant less this spring Directly the opposite course should be pursued, or at least an attempt should be made to raise more than was raised last year — Higher prices are likely to prevail during the year to come, for very good reasons A less area will probably be planted A less abundant crop in Massachusetts and some other States will be likely to be produced since last year was unusually favorable for the crop in this State and in some sections of New England and equally good results are not likely to occur this year For these and other reasons, we advise our farmers to plant freely of potatoes not more land than can be well fertilized and protected from the potato bee tle but enough to secure a good crop

ON THE WATCH For some time now one of our citizens, who is exceedingly fond of gunning, has been troubled by a huge black dog that runs out whenever he passes on one of his expeditions, and pitches into his dog, a small spaniel, giving him some unmerciful threshings This was certainly very irritating and not long since as he was passing the house the dog rushed out as usual, when the gentleman gave him a charge of small shot The owner of the big dog then got very wrathy and called on the gentleman, who informed him that he had no business to permit a vicious dog to run at large The result of the interview was not very satisfactory to the man any how, and it is reported that he is now keeping a close watch of the citizen's house, in order to get a shot at the spaniel On the other hand the citizen is watching this man and declares that if he can secure evidence that he is carrying concealed weapons he will put him under bonds to keep the peace

THE WISCASSET BONDS Mr Henry Ingalls, of Wiscasset, is in Portland looking up the bondholders of the town of Wiscasset The town is insolvent. It owes $200 000 and its valuation is less than $400 000 owing to heavy rate of taxation for some time back and apprehension of trouble by reason of suits brought against the city The suits are four in number and have driven from $30 000 to $50 000 personal property out of the town, a town of 2000 inhabitants There is no possibility that the citizens can pay the indebtedness The debts as is well know was caused by three loans in aid of the railroad, one of $80 000 then another of $31 000 to save the first and a third of $43 000 to save the other two, and also by the war debt, and long continued heavy taxation The town now proposes to pay 50 per cent of the present indebtedness one quarter cash, and three quarters in new six per cent bonds Mr Ingalls is trying to find the bond-holders who are scattered from New York to Eastport and get them to accept the proposition

AN ABSCONDING EX TAX COLLECTOR We learn that considerable local excitement has been created in the quiet town of Corinna, by the sudden departure of Clements C Hibby, Greenbacker, who has been Tax Collector of the town for several years prior to this Spring when he was succeeded by a Republican It is stated that Hibby had not fully settled his accounts for several years under the Greenback town administration and that of about $4 000 of of taxes committed to him it is not known how much he has collected, as his books are gone He has a wife and two children in Corinna and Jonathan Hutchings, Robert Knowles and John Bigelow were his bondsmen for 1879 He left home last Thursday, driving over to Pittsfield where he took the cars He afterwards sent a postal card from Boston to a man in Corinna to whom he had sold his team, telling him where to find it in Pittsfield Libby is about thirty five years of age, and has hitherto stood well It is generally thought that he has misappropriated one or two thousand dollars, but that the town's interest will be fully protected

FOR THE LADIES Brass color is a favorite shade of yellow Oriental designs retain their hold on public favor Very fanciful petticoats are brought out for summer wear. The "Gainsborough" hat will be worn at the watering places. Soft French silks are being made to imitate the Japanese silks The most beautiful gauzes and laces are employed for bonnet strings Sleeves are still set high on the shoulders and made to fit the arm closely White flannel costumes will be worn at the watering places this season Black visiting cards, with names printed in gold, have been introduced in London A pretty petticoat for wear under an evening dress may be made of mainsook and Breton lace Broad collars, composed of jet or cashmere-colored beads, are worn with many street costumes It is still the fashion to have all portions of the toilette to match, even to the parasol and handkerchief Black stockings, embroidered in gold thread or colored floss, are the most stylish hose for black costumes The fancy for using bright silk or satin linings for cuffs, collars, draperies and the skirts of pelisses prevails largely Skirts of plain silk to be worn under overdresses of fancy material are frequently trimmed with narrow crant bias ruffles. A new fabric called "canvas silk" is becoming very popular It is as thin as grenadine, and is admirably adapted for summer costumes. Satin polka-dots of immense proportions, on silk background, are very stylish, especially in black, and are newer than the floriated patterns of several seasons past.

AMUSEMENTS.

Boston Museum Company.

A dramatic treat is in store for our citizens on Wednesday evening of next week, when the Boston Museum Company will visit us for the last time this season. The company is the largest one manager Field has ever sent on the road, and embraces all of the leading people of the "finest stock company in America," a company that has been "the delight of Bostonians for generations." The programme will consist of the comedy, "My Uncle's Will," with Miss Annie Clarke and Mr Chas. Barron in the leading roles, and the famous "Silver Spoon" with William Warren in his great impersonation of "Jefferson Scattering Batkins," the "Member of the General Court from Cranberry Centre," supported by Mrs J R Vincent in her original character Miss Sadie Martinot, Miss May Davenport, Miss Alice Carle, Miss Ryan, Miss Russell and Messrs Mason, Loring, Carlos, Pitman, Ring, Nolan and others This will probably bring to a close the dramatic season in this city and will undoubtedly draw the usual large audiences The sale of secured seats will commence at D Bugbee & Cos on Saturday morning

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

A Wonderful Medicine for Impurities of the Blood.

Shaker Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and all other impurities, excites the appetite, regulates the stomach and bowels, and increases the flesh It prevents weakness and degeneration of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs It is a mother's remedy, regulating and strengthening the maternal functions It purifies the female system of ulcerative weaknesses and debilitating humors and expels the first symptoms of hereditary humors in children and youth. It is truly wonderful in nervous and general debility, emaciation and dropsy, invigorating and strengthening both the mental and physical forces

Dear Sir—In answer to your inquiries concerning the Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla as prepared by the Society of Shakers in Canterbury, N H., I would say that I have been familiar with the prescription, and have always recommended it from my personal knowledge of those concerned in its preparation which to me is proof that it is just what it purports to be.

DIXI CROSBY, M.D

LAWRENCE, Jan 19, 1880

N A BRIGGS, Esq Dear Sir—I have sold "Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla" for the past twenty five years, and consider it to be the most reliable preparation of sarsaparilla syrup in the market My opinion is based partly upon the reputation of the manufacturers, and partly upon testimony of those of my customers who have used it.

Yours very truly

CHARLES CLARKE, Druggist.

This truly great medical compound, invented by Dr Thomas Corbett, a member of our Society, was the first as well as it is the best of all remedies called Sarsaparilla, none of which bear any comparison to it in the variety, quality, and quantity of its ingredients. Druggists warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

BEYOND THE RIVER

LINES COMPOSED ON THE DEATH OF THE LATE IRA W GOLE.

There is a river wide and deep,
And while along its banks we stray,
We see our loved one o er its tide,
Sail from our sight away, away

Its bird from view, but we may guess,
How beautiful that realm must be
For gleamings of its loveliness,
In visions granted oft ye see

And gentle airs so sweet so calm,
Steal sometimes from that flowless sh here,
The mourner feels their breath at balm,
And soothed sorrow dries the tears

There is our loved one in his rest,
He'll cross Time s River now no more,
He ll heed not the bubbles on its breast,
Nor feel the storms that sweep the shore

But there pure love can live can last,
He ll look for us his home to share,
When we in turn have passed away,
What joyful greetings wait us there

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot:
